

AFFIRM YOURSELF

I love myself.

I feel confident and beautiful in my body.

I am stronger than my fears.

I attract the love I desire.

My drive and ambition allow me to reach my goals.

I am confident in my abilities.

The more I relax, the more I receive.

I am rich in all areas of my life.

I have everything I need to create the future I want.

Everything is always working out for my good no matter how it looks at any point in time.

Wealth exists within me.

I am stepping into the most successful seasons of my life both internally and externally.
